Criminal Docket No. 10-771 (S-1)(NG)

Dear Counsel:

Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the government hereby furnishes the following discovery with respect to the above-referenced matter. Please also consider this letter to be the government's request for reciprocal discovery.

1. Statements of the Defendant

The government will provide any statements made by the defendant, including answers to pedigree questions under separate cover shortly.

2. Prior Criminal History

The government will provide a copy of the defendant's criminal history, if any, under separate cover.

3. Documents and Tangible Objects

Copies of any items recovered from the defendant at the time of his or her arrest, if any, will be provided under separate cover shortly.

Enclosed are discovery letters dated December 13, 2010, January 4, 2011, January 13, 2011, March 8, 2011, March 9, 2011, June 14, 2011, June 17, 2011, October 13, 2011, which contain all discovery previously provided to the defendants in this case (except defendant specific discovery such as criminal history, post-arrest statements and the like).

The government anticipates providing additional bank records shortly.

The Defendant's Required Disclosures

The government hereby requests reciprocal discovery under Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The government requests that the defendant allow inspection and copying of (1) any books, papers, documents, photographs, tapes, tangible objects, or copies or portions thereof, which are in the defendant's possession, custody or control, and which the defendant intends to introduce as evidence or otherwise rely on at trial, and (2) any results of reports or physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in connection with this case, or copies thereof, which are in the defendant's possession, custody, or control, and which the defendant intends to introduce as evidence or otherwise rely on at trial or which were prepared by a witness whom the defendant intends to call at trial.

The government also requests that the defendant disclose prior statements of witnesses who will be called by the defendant to testify. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2. To avoid any unnecessary delay, we request that you have copies of these statements available for production to the government no later than the commencement of trial.

The government also requests that the defendant disclose a written summary of testimony the defendant intends to use under Rules 702, 703, and 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence. The summary should describe the opinions of the witnesses, the bases and reasons for those opinions, and the witnesses' qualifications.
